

Guide to Record Keeping For Child Care Professionals Now Available Online

9/9/2008

The Department of Children and Families Child Care Program Office is offering Guide to Record Keeping, a new online course, for child care professionals.

This course offers record keeping best practices for child care professionals from child care professionals. In addition, the course will assist providers in meeting all of the statutory requirements, prepare programs to be inspection ready and administer programs that protect the health and safety of children.

To access this course, visit www.myflorida.com/childcare and select Training Requirements.