

Early Learning ratings: Cheers for ruling

Amanda Ostrander

The Florida Times-Union, 9/16/2008

An administrative law judge ruled that the rating system used by the Early Learning Coalition of Duval is not part of a state-mandated system. The lawsuit was brought by the Florida Association for Child Care management, a trade group for private child care companies.

View article on the Florida Times-Union