

Report finds that state governors are still funding VPK programs despite the economy

6/21/2010

The Florida Voluntary Prekindergarten Program (VPK) provides early education for all four year olds. The 2002 ballot initiative that created the program established a constitutional obligation to provide funding for all children whose families wish to enroll them.

Read the report